DISTRICT SUPERVISOR OF ATTENDANCE

The Cairo-Durham Central School District seeking a School District Supervisor of Attendance (DSA). The DSA is under the nexus of the Building Principals'. The position is tasked with reinforcing and reviewing the attendance processes, procedures, protocols and policies of the district with each building principal and those designated as the school's Attendance Committee. The primary goal of this position is to reinforce the importance of school attendance as it relates to positive outcomes for students. The DSA will act as a mentor to students encouraging improvements in school attendance, helping to ensure that students are ultimately successful.

This position is a 10 month permanent probationary position. Provisional appointment is subject to satisfactorily completing the Civil Service exam and placement on a current Greene County Civil Service list.

Interested candidates should apply by Monday, July 17, 2017 to:
