

Cairo Public Library Summer Reading Program

July 6: The Lego Batman Movie kicks off the 2017 Summer Reading Program; sign up and relax with snacks and a fun film for the whole family. Sign up is 6 p.m.; film shows at 6:15 p.m.

July 7 and every Friday for month of July: Toddler Storytime with Music and Movement. Directed at 3-5 years of age. 10:30 a.m. Preregister.

July 7: Dino Dig. Two-part program: digging for “dinosaur fossils” and making dinosaur molds. Directed at ages 3-8. 1:30 p.m. Preregister.

July 8 and every Saturday in July: Yoga for Teens/Adults. 9:45 a.m.

July 10: Museum of Innovation and Science (MiSci) comes to the library. Little Wonders of Science. Science Storytime with Basic Experiments. 10:30 a.m. Directed at Grades Pre-K—2. Preregister.

July 10 and every Monday in July: Drawing with Stanley Maltzman. 6:30 p.m. Ages 12 and up.

Preregister. July 11: Conversing in Spanish. Provided by CGCC. Teen/Adult. Call to register: 828-4181, ext. 3342. Four Tuesday sessions. 10 a.m. Fee.

July 11: Paintings Based on Fibonacci with Ruth Leonard. Drawing and watercolors. Supplies provided. Directed at Grade 5 and up. Three Tuesday sessions. 1:30 p.m. Preregister.

July 14: Plants. Listen to a story about gardening then decorate a flower pot and plant seeds. Directed at ages 4 and up. 1:30 p.m. Preregister.

July 17: MiSci Innovation and Invention. Learn what it takes to be an inventor. 1:30 p.m. Grades 3-5. Preregister.

Every Wednesday in July: Babes in Bookland. Infant/Toddler. 10 a.m. Preregister.

There will be programs throughout the month of July. You can find these on the library online calendar: cairolibrary.org or on our Facebook page. All programs are free unless otherwise noted.